house organist and developed a lasting friendship with House Speaker Tip O'Neil. He also toured the Northeast and Canada with the successful show revue "Easy Living", and continued his appearances at night-clubs in Boston and New York. Subsequently Hammond lived and traveled in Europe, where he has an enthusiastic following.

*Musician: Jon Hammond is one of the premier B3 PLAYERS in the world. Jon has played professionally since age 12. Beginning as a solo accordionist, he later played Hammond B3 organ in a number of important San Francisco bands. His all original group HADES opened shows for Tower of Power, Quicksilver Messenger Service and Michael Bloomfield. Moving East he attended Berklee College of Music and played venues as diverse as Boston's "Combat Zone" in the strip-tease clubs during the '70's and the exclusive Wychmere Harbor Club in Cape Cod, where he was
